Incident Summary: On January 31, 2022, at 2:59 pm, one gunshot was fired into a residence located in the 2600 block of Osceola Avenue, with one occupant inside. The victim was sitting in her front room when she heard three gunshots. One of the rounds entered her front room window and struck the interior wall. The listed victim was sitting within several feet of where the round had entered the window. The victim looked outside and saw a gray car, possibly a Honda Civic, driving away from the area. The victim did not get a description of the suspect(s). No shell casings were located. This incident is still under investigation and anyone with information is asked to contact Burglary Unit Detective James Dembinski #1989 at (614) 645-6267, or Central Ohio Crime Stoppers at (614) 461-TIPS (8477).
